JUDGE · CLARK COUNTY FAMILY LAW LAS VEGAS · 4 SUBMISSIONS

"Three days before my family court trial, I filed a complaint regarding a member of the judge's courtroom staff because I believed my concerns were not being properly addressed. During the trial, I perceived a significant change in how I was treated. I believe Judge Adriana Rincon White abandoned her role as a neutral judicial officer by assisting the opposing party during his testimony, interrupting him to develop his claims, directing him to call my personal cell phone and my child's device, putting on gloves, instructing the bailiff to take my phone, and telling me not to touch it. I believed there was no warrant or court order authorizing those actions. I was repeatedly interrupted, limited in my ability to present evidence and cross-examine, and I felt humiliated and disrespected throughout the proceedings. I also believe important evidence I presented, including evidence relating to the opposing party's financial issues, was not given appropriate consideration, while the written order included negative statements about me that I believe were unsupported by the evidence presented at trial. In my view, the order mischaracterized my conduct and omitted important findings that I believed were supported by the evidence. After the trial, I sought Judge White's disqualification and filed judicial complaints. My request for disqualification was heard by Chief Judge Jerry A. Wiese II, who concluded that my description of the phone incident was an exaggeration. I respectfully disagree with that conclusion and questioned whether the courtroom recording had been meaningfully reviewed before the decision was issued. My judicial complaint was also dismissed, which left me concerned that my allegations had not received an independent review. Judge White remained assigned to my"

This eighth district Nevada family court is a disaster made for money grabbing honorable justices. I haven't seen my minor daughter for over 200 days and the judge has no idea and all decisions have been made in chambers or scheduled for future 3 am hearings. Sad state of affairs for mothers and children. Expose these criminals who are protecting the abusers. > "She has allowed my daughters predator reunification with her. (He molested her at age 2 and raped his older daughter a year later. Now has to register as a aex offender) she has ignored evidence that shows the cps allegations made against me were either flat out lies or extremely exaggerated. She also allowed the removal of my child from my custody across state lines and has not made any progress in loving my daughter closer to me for visits. Im now in Texas and am awaiting that here instead of in california. There has been massive communications between the hospital (reno behavioral health) that reported me because I didnt have health insurance for my daughter in nevada and the washoe County courts. This is retaliation because I reported this hospital to authorities for their discrimination of my daughter and I She has upheld perjury from the case worker in my case and ignored extenuating circumstances for my case like the fact that im disabled and and crippled. Still working. And have provided ample medical care for my daughter her entire life."

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so Nevada families — and families across every represented location — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

03 THE COST OF NEVADA FAMILY COURT

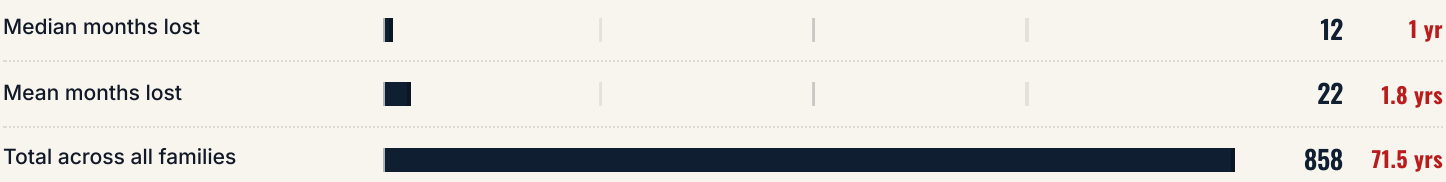

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

EXPENSE CATEGORY	RESPONSES	MEDIAN	MEAN	TOTAL REPORTED
Attorney Fees	37	$40,000	$86,896	$3,215,137
Lost Wages	26	$10,000	$109,946	$2,858,600
Other Court Fees	14	$5,000	$23,139	$323,941
Therapy / Evaluations	21	$3,000	$5,691	$119,520
Reunification Services	10	$500	$2,300	$23,000
GAL Fees	6	$0	$2	$10
Asset Loss [1]	20	$25,000	—	—
Median Family Burden (18 families reporting 3+ categories)	—	$177,358	—	—

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers. Median Family Burden is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported costs in 3 or more expense categories with a combined total of at least $1,000 — a true median of real family totals, restricted to families who filled out enough of the financial section to characterize their case and excluding obvious data-entry artifacts.

1. On asset loss: One respondent reported an extreme outlier that skews the mean beyond usefulness. We report the median ($25,000) and suppress the mean and total, pending data-quality review. Lost Wages also contains wide variance; median is the honest headline.

For over three and a half years, my son has made repeated disclosures of sexual abuse occurring during custodial time with his father. I have documented everything: emergency room visits, pediatric records, CPS reports, police involvement, recordings, school concerns, witness statements, therapist concerns, and years of consistent disclosures from my child. Multiple physicians, teachers, mandated reporters, and independent individuals have documented concerns related to my son's statements and behavior. Instead of meaningful protection, I have been treated as the problem. My son's father is extremely wealthy. I am a hairdresser who has now been forced to refinance my home and drain over $100,000 from my equity simply to continue litigating to protect my child. Meanwhile, his father has reportedly spent hundreds of thousands of dollars attacking my credibility, attempting to portray me as unstable, and avoiding direct scrutiny of the abuse allegations themselves. I recently filed an emergency ex parte motion after additional disclosures and medical documentation. The Court denied emergency relief and ordered my son returned to the very environment where he says the abuse is occurring. We now have a hearing scheduled for June 2, 2026. I feel completely unheard. Despite years of documentation, objective records, medical involvement, and repeated disclosures from my child, the system appears more willing to believe that a mother fabricated years of allegations than to fully investigate the possibility that a child is being harmed. The Court's own order acknowledged concerns regarding the father's credibility, particularly surrounding conflicting statements about individuals identified by my child. Yet despite those concerns, my son has still been ordered back into the environment he fears. I cannot explain the helplessness of watching your child beg not to return somewhere while being told by the system that there is “not enough” evidence, even after years of reporting. I am terrified that if I comply, my child will continue to suffer abuse. I am terrified that if I do not comply, I will be arrested or lose him entirely. I am asking for help, oversight, and independent review. This case needs objective eyes outside the local system. I believe the combination of wealth, aggressive litigation tactics, and systemic failures has allowed serious allegations to be minimized instead of properly investigated. I do not want publicity for myself. I want my child safe. I want someone to finally listen before more damage is done.

In my opinion, the family court system has done more to divide my family than to bring us together. Instead of preserving the loving relationships that existed between my grandchildren and their extended family, the court process has left us separated and emotionally devastated. Over time contact has been reduced or eliminated, and the bonds that took years to build have been put at risk. My grandchildren have also lost the opportunity to maintain a close relationship with a grandparent who has always loved, supported, and cared for them since their births. The emotional impact has been profound. The stress, grief, and uncertainty have affected every member of our entire family. Rather than encouraging, healthy family relationships whenever possible, the process has left us feeling unheard, powerless, and disconnected. I believe children benefit from having loving relationships with their extended family, and it has been heartbreaking to watch those relationships disappear through a prolonged court process.

I left court feeling humiliated, unheard, and without confidence that my concerns for my child's safety and well-being were taken seriously. The emotional, financial, and mental toll of continuing to fight through complaints and an appeal without feeling that my concerns have been independently reviewed has been overwhelming. My trust in the family court system has been deeply shaken, and I worry not only about my own case but about other families who may be experiencing similar treatment.

07 HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

WHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a public, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this Nevada report comes from Nevada respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in Nevada — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 54 Nevada families reporting here are not the universe of Nevada families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. Response counts and percentages use the number of families who answered that specific topic or financial field. The Median Family Burden headline is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported in three or more expense categories. Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – October 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

Dollar fields exclude blank, negative, and obvious data-entry artifact values above the report's field caps. When asset-loss values contain a strong statistical outlier, the asset-loss mean and total are suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county or regional field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte–Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 3 independent families name the same actor.
