Family-reported pattern context only. Each person must file only their own truthful, first-hand complaint using their own facts, dates, evidence, orders, transcripts, and documents.

Public threshold rule: Names are grouped conservatively by normalized spelling, role, and location. Common titles, punctuation, casing, and middle initials collapse together. Close misspellings are not auto-merged without admin review. Only family-direct submissions count toward the public threshold.

THE HEADLINE NUMBERS

NEW MEXICO AT A GLANCE.

Across 31 New Mexico families reporting through the Family Rights Registry, the patterns are consistent: long durations in court, serious financial loss, and a disproportionate number of parents going unrepresented because they ran out of money fighting.

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so New Mexico families — and families across every represented location — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

03 THE COST OF NEW MEXICO FAMILY COURT

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

EXPENSE CATEGORY	RESPONSES	MEDIAN	MEAN	TOTAL REPORTED
Attorney Fees	16	$22,000	$28,842	$461,480
Lost Wages	13	$16,000	$69,692	$906,000
Other Court Fees	12	$3,250	$2,861	$34,334
Therapy / Evaluations	11	$2,000	$5,768	$63,450
Reunification Services	10	$900	$2,850	$28,500
GAL Fees	12	$3,250	$13,875	$166,500
Asset Loss	9	$30,000	$157,277	$1,415,496
Median Family Burden (13 families reporting 3+ categories)	—	$92,000	—	—

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers. Median Family Burden is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported costs in 3 or more expense categories with a combined total of at least $1,000 — a true median of real family totals, restricted to families who filled out enough of the financial section to characterize their case and excluding obvious data-entry artifacts.

> This has been the most traumatizing experience for my daughter when she was kidnapped away from her home unknowingly her father did not tell her what was happening. She was alienated from me. Her brothers her stepfather her grandpa her aunties. We are Native American and we value our family connections. This has been traumatizing being at the court, mercy and realizing that the court system was part of the problem of removing my daughter for me. I had trusted the court the judge that the truth will be revealed and everything my ex and his attorney did manipulating the courts and the school systems will be revealed, but after every court, I'm either held the contempt or placed with more sanctions. I have yet to show any of my evidence to the court, and now a judge who knowingly is in full knowledge of my constitutional rights have been violated, and I was not given due process has still yet to acknowledge what he did and will not now it's gonna be more money for an appeal more money for tort claim more money that we don't have my daughter is 15 already she only has two more summers left of her childhood. Everything was taken from her all her sports her activities her hobbies. Now she has to sit in the house by herself like a prisoner.

I made the court aware even offered text and voice recordings. Nothing was done and I eventually had to quit going to visit as there was always a conflict but the court still wouldn't set scheduled visitation.

07 HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

WHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a public, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this New Mexico report comes from New Mexico respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in New Mexico — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 31 New Mexico families reporting here are not the universe of New Mexico families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. Response counts and percentages use the number of families who answered that specific topic or financial field. The Median Family Burden headline is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported in three or more expense categories. Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – October 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

Dollar fields exclude blank, negative, and obvious data-entry artifact values above the report's field caps. When asset-loss values contain a strong statistical outlier, the asset-loss mean and total are suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county or regional field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte–Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 3 independent families name the same actor.
