THE HEADLINE NUMBERS

ARKANSAS AT A GLANCE.

Across 30 Arkansas families reporting through the Family Rights Registry, the patterns are consistent: long durations in court, serious financial loss, and a disproportionate number of parents going unrepresented because they ran out of money fighting.

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so Arkansas families — and families in every state — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

02 THE COST OF ARKANSAS FAMILY COURT

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

Expense Category	Responses	Median	Mean	Total Reported
Attorney Fees	17	$15,000	$96,324	$1,637,500
Lost Wages	16	$55,000	$367,812	$5,885,000
Other Court Fees	10	$2,850	$32,278	$322,780
Therapy / Evaluations	12	$2,500	$11,308	$135,700
Reunification Services	10	$0	$670	$6,700
GAL Fees	14	$675	$23,932	$335,050
Asset Loss ¹	14	$50,000	—	—
Estimated Median Family Impact	—	$126,025	—	—

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers.

1. On asset loss: One respondent reported an extreme outlier that skews the mean beyond usefulness. We report the median ($50,000) and suppress the mean and total, pending data-quality review. Lost Wages also contains wide variance; median is the honest headline.

— TAMARA

My children were removed from my care by the Arkansas Division of Family Services under circumstances that were both unfair and deeply distressing. For over a year, the agency made it nearly impossible for me to regain custody, despite my constant efforts to comply with every requirement and reunite with my children. When my children were taken, I immediately asked that they be placed with family members, but that request was refused. The department delayed setting up the counseling and support services that I was ordered to complete, even though I was ready and willing to participate. To make matters worse, they moved my children four hours away from me, knowing that I did not have a vehicle. This made it almost impossible to visit them regularly, no matter how much I wanted to. Throughout the process, I was portrayed inaccurately. In court, the department told the judge that I was not trying or cooperating, which was completely untrue. The Arkansas State Police later investigated the allegations that led to my children's removal and found them to be unfounded and untrue. Even with that finding, my children were never returned to my care. Eventually, I was pressured into signing away my parental rights — not because I wanted to, but because I was cornered and made to feel that I had no other choice. My children were adopted, and I live every day with the pain of knowing that the truth was ignored and that I did everything I could to bring them home. This experience has left me determined to speak up — for myself, for my children, and for other parents who are struggling to be heard and treated fairly.

07 HOW TO READ THIS REPORTWHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a national, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this Arkansas report comes from Arkansas respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in Arkansas — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 30 Arkansas families reporting here are not the universe of Arkansas families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. We flag outliers and report medians when means are distorted (see page 3, note 1). Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – April 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

When a respondent's financial entry differs from the population by more than three standard deviations, the mean is suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte–Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 5 independent families name the same actor.
