THE HEADLINE NUMBERS

INDIANA AT A GLANCE.

Across 72 Indiana families reporting through the Family Rights Registry, the patterns are consistent: long durations in court, serious financial loss, and a disproportionate number of parents going unrepresented because they ran out of money fighting.

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so Indiana families — and families in every state — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

02 THE COST OF INDIANA FAMILY COURT

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

| EXPENSE CATEGORY                                           | RESPONSES | MEDIAN   | MEAN     | TOTAL REPORTED |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|----------|----------|----------------|
| Attorney Fees                                              | 52        | $10,000 | $34,388 | $1,788,200    |
| Lost Wages                                                 | 38        | $6,000  | $62,484 | $2,374,401    |
| Other Court Fees                                           | 25        | $100    | $2,096  | $52,400       |
| Therapy / Evaluations                                      | 29        | $1,500  | $18,559 | $538,200      |
| Reunification Services                                     | 25        | $0      | $10,720 | $268,000      |
| GAL Fees                                                   | 32        | $325    | $10,022 | $320,700      |
| Asset Loss                                                 | 36        | $13,000 | $94,397 | $3,398,300    |
| Median Family Burden (33 families reporting 3+ categories) | —         | $56,250 | —        | —              |

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers. Median Family Burden is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported costs in 3 or more expense categories with a combined total of at least $1,000 — a true median of real family totals, restricted to families who filled out enough of the financial section to characterize their case and excluding obvious data-entry artifacts.

Procedural failures and biased reporting—especially in documentation—led to a narrative that misrepresented me and negatively impacted my family. Instead of protecting stability, the system introduced confusion, delay, and unnecessary harm. The process became more about compliance than fairness, with real-life impacts overlooked. The process is ongoing and escalating, deteriorating my relationship with my children. No due process, defamation of character, false allegations, frivolous motions filed statistically every 2 weeks for 5 years, stole my transportation during co-parenting counseling, lost job at post office, smear campaign, unilateral decisions, parental alienation, third party interference, falsifying documents, corrupt, corrupt, corrupt

The system destroyed my family. When parents need both parents they favored one! Sure I made a mistake but to pay for the mistake for years and years. Even after I did all classes that was asked of me. I went from primary custody parent to only 5 hours every Sunday. I went from receiving 112 a week in support to paying $800 a month in support. My ex abused the court orders. Gave me visits based on if he felt I deserved visits. I tried to inform the gal she ignored me. The gal only visited my ex home and spoke with ex witnesses. Never visited my home or spoke with my witnesses. She ignored that I completed all my courses. My attorney never spoke up in court when asked if I completed the courses.

I have been permanently injured/nearly killed and after 4yrs without contact 2 out of 4 people that I woke to still having here on earth don't call or even send a happy birthday message. I've spent everything I earned in 50 yrs and retirement trying to find someone that would simply read the black and white to no avail. Now to top it all after losing my fiancé, father, grandmother, and my only 2 daughters along with my ability to walk I'm going to be put in prison over child support when I have never been behind until the wreck where I was nearly killed. My children, reputation, everything I've bought and paid for has been stolen while in jail or sold to get out. My home will be the last thing I lose along with my freedom here in three weeks.

Make me take parenting classes, sych. Test, on probation, threatening me with jail, take all my money. I have deep depression to the point of thinking about suicide

— ANTHONY

The family court system has allowed my ex to abuse me post-separation via expensive litigation, delaying necessary services for our son who is struggling and has ignored every piece of evidence brought into the court room. The system has failed my child.

I have lost immeasurable time and experiences with my boy, ultimately losing my identity. I have had to turn down jobs, career paths, dreams, emotional connections with so many people who don't understand what I have gone through.

Created diversion, chaos, and emotionally trashed my family, sat back and watched the diversion they created... And used it for their own financial gain.

— MICHAEL

It has damaged me and my family. My oldest son has been taken from us all. He has a younger brother who talks about him daily. Who wishes he could see his brother and wonders why it has happened. It's affected him in ways we can't help 😞.

It has completely made distrust with the system, the law is scared of the word family law. Allen County is a County where people help the abuse. My son's dad was allowed to come after my daughters. Everyone keeps saying this doesn't involve them. But the hurt and loss of losing a sibling the most disgusting way. We have to watch wear we go or we get attacked from the abuser. My whole family.

My son Alex is now 20 years old, the same age I was when I had him, and I haven't seen him since he was 12. When he finally got Facebook, we were able to start messaging back and forth to keep in touch a little bit, but he has a whole life that doesn't include me now. For all I know, he hates me. Or is mad at me at the very least. And as he should be. I promised to never stop fighting until I brought him home and where did we end up? I've become a stranger to him, just someone he used to know, a person of the past. And I don't know anything about him anymore either. I don't know who he is or what kind of person he's turned out to be. I don't know what matters to him, what drives him, what his vision for life is. I don't know what his purpose or passion is, what inspires him, what his dreams or life goals are. I don't know if he has a girlfriend, if he has a job, what his plans for the future are, what his favorite food is, what his hobbies are. He's my son and, because of my government, the *justice* system, we are complete strangers.

06 HOW TO READ THIS REPORT*WHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a national, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this Indiana report comes from Indiana respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in Indiana — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 72 Indiana families reporting here are not the universe of Indiana families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. We flag outliers and report medians when means are distorted (see page 3, note 1). The Median Family Burden headline is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported in three or more expense categories. Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – May 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

When a respondent's financial entry differs from the population by more than three standard deviations, the mean is suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte–Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 3 independent families name the same actor.
