THE HEADLINE NUMBERS

ILLINOIS AT A GLANCE.

Across 77 Illinois families reporting through the Family Rights Registry, the patterns are consistent: long durations in court, serious financial loss, and a disproportionate number of parents going unrepresented because they ran out of money fighting.

CHILDREN IMPACTED 112 76 of 77 families reported child counts	MEDIAN ATTORNEY FEES $20,000 per reporting family	MEDIAN MONTHS LOST 17 of parenting time	WENT PRO SE 49.4% 32.5% after running out of money

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so Illinois families — and families in every state — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

02 THE COST OF ILLINOIS FAMILY COURT

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

EXPENSE CATEGORY	RESPONSES	MEDIAN	MEAN	TOTAL REPORTED
Attorney Fees	54	$20,000	$70,330	$3,797,800
Lost Wages	53	$20,000	$89,836	$4,761,300
Other Court Fees	27	$30	$2,807	$75,800
Therapy / Evaluations	41	$2,000	$5,641	$231,290
Reunification Services	34	$200	$1,410	$47,925
GAL Fees	45	$5,000	$12,233	$550,500
Asset Loss ¹	43	$30,000	—	—
Estimated Median Family Impact	—	$77,230	—	—

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers.

1. On asset loss: One respondent reported an extreme outlier that skews the mean beyond usefulness. We report the median ($30,000) and suppress the mean and total, pending data-quality review. Lost Wages also contains wide variance; median is the honest headline.

Having to grieve the loss of children that aren't dead is something that can't be put into words. The pain is unbearable but you have to survive in case they come back...it's a horrible way to live.

The system is taking my 5 year old daughter from her mother and siblings on fake alienation claims without viewing any of my children's sexual abuse evidence

— ANONYMOUS PARENT

The damage to my family is catastrophic. Its been 9 years of torment. My youngest son was only 2 yrs old, and I've been told he doesn't remember me and thinks my exes current wife is his mom and they let him think so. Hes 11 years old now. Ive haven't seen my daughter either and I have no idea if she remembers me at all. My oldest is 22 now and we are just beginning to have a relationship. I am grateful for that but I mourn the relationship we used to have, the one we should have, the one we deserve to have. None of us are the people we would have been, we are all more broken, all more damaged, changed, robbed of our rightful place in each other's lives and not one person is better for it. A family destroyed for nothing.

— AMBER

Put me to the brink of death or wanting to kill

— ANONYMOUS PARENT

The system failed me as a child in the welfare system, at 30 years old seeing no real change, accountability or resources while my children are now in DCFS custody is quite scary, they're understaffed and not held accountable. We now live in fear waiting for reunification, in which we have been targets of DCFS since 2019.

— STARKESHIA

I have made it to the other side, my fear is that it will take my son a long time to heal from the emotional damage. I have NEVER lost my faith in God and he has carried me through.

— TIFFANY

06 FULL PARENT COMMENTS, CONTINUED

Over years of litigation and ongoing conflict, the family court process and my ex's conduct have created instability, severe emotional strain, and division within our family, placing the children in the middle of adult issues instead of protecting their emotional, mental and physical wellbeing. The repeated litigation, financial instability, interference with parenting time, and ongoing conflict have significantly impacted both me and the children emotionally, mentally, physically, financially, and relationally, while undermining consistency and security for the children.

— ANONYMOUS PARENT

My daughters repeatedly ask for mom. I've seen my oldest daughter's school portal where she writes letters to me that she isn't allowed to send. Her doctor has reached out to me asking why her father hasn't brought her to her regular checkups for her medical condition. He lies and says she resides with him when eyewitnesses have stated they have seen all other members of his family except do my daughter. My youngest (with the other man who is now my ex's bff) is confined to a playroom, is in full time year round daycare while her father sits unemployed in a million dollar home asking me for child support (i work part time and rely on family help). I watch as he tells her that she is happy after she expresses she had a bad day or is sad. She has said she doesn't have friends.

07 HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

WHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a national, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this Illinois report comes from Illinois respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in Illinois — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 77 Illinois families reporting here are not the universe of Illinois families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. We flag outliers and report medians when means are distorted (see page 3, note 1). Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – May 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

When a respondent's financial entry differs from the population by more than three standard deviations, the mean is suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte–Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 5 independent families name the same actor.
