WISCONSIN AT A GLANCE.

Across 77 Wisconsin families reporting through the Family Rights Registry, the patterns are consistent: long durations in court, serious financial loss, and a disproportionate number of parents going unrepresented because they ran out of money fighting.

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so Wisconsin families — and families across every represented location — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

02 THE COST OF WISCONSIN FAMILY COURT

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

EXPENSE CATEGORY	RESPONSES	MEDIAN	MEAN	TOTAL REPORTED
Attorney Fees	56	$20,000	$55,113	$3,086,350
Lost Wages	43	$10,000	$32,166	$1,383,140
Other Court Fees	31	$1,500	$7,344	$227,650
Therapy / Evaluations	39	$3,000	$8,931	$348,325
Reunification Services	21	$120	$1,984	$41,670
GAL Fees	53	$4,800	$7,997	$423,850
Asset Loss	33	$50,000	$135,873	$4,483,824
Median Family Burden (47 families reporting 3+ categories)	—	$68,000	—	—

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers. Median Family Burden is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported costs in 3 or more expense categories with a combined total of at least $1,000 — a true median of real family totals, restricted to families who filled out enough of the financial section to characterize their case and excluding obvious data-entry artifacts.

I am losing my home because I can’t afford to keep fighting my x. He makes half a million a year and has 4 attorneys, he files false allegations and I get drained financially fighting him. Our kids are slowly dying inside every time they have to be with him and be abused by him. No one will listen to the kids. Their doctors have called the police and cps and crickets.

My ex was convicted of second degree sexual assault of a child. My daughter was the victim. He threatened to kills us. I was granted a 10 year DVPO and he was sentenced to 4 years in prison, 6 years extended supervision, and is a lifelong registered sex offender. My two young sons who were 18 months at 4 years at the time of his arrest were ordered by the family court to be driven to the prison by complete strangers (men from a jail prayer ministry) to visit him. Immediately upon his release from prison he was awarded weekly 4 hour visits with the same church men supervising. Despite my boys now being 8 and 11 and having fulfilled lives and relationships. He continues to file motion after motín after motion which is a form of post separation abuse as a means to financially harm me. The criminal court advocated for me and my kids and I felt hope that we would be protected. Unfortunately in family court all they care about is his right to "meaningful and reoccurring placement" instead of the boys' rights to be safe.

In my experience the system frowns upon any type of abuse besides directly physical being brought up, does not give victims the right to speak, and it brings children into dangerous situations. It allows for predators to take advantage of “court-rulings” and to gain power over their victims further. Context should be read in before every case, but this is seldom taken into account. For situations that include financial abuse, religious abuse, emotional torment, sexual abuse but not rape, and misogynistic relationships that involve a rather “controlling” and “intimidating” in nature, it seems as though nobody gives a rats ass. The system is built off of “documentation” but why should we wait for terrible things to happen for them to be proven to the court? At the expense of our childrens safety?! Why shouldn’t mothers who were victims of ANY type of abuse be heard- even if those types of abuse are COMMON to a “human being” but not COMMON in family court? If false allegations just keep getting dismissed, does that mean that either party can just start throwing them around willy nilly? No. This is not justice.

This system has completely failed my family. It broke apart not only a mother from her firstborn son but my son from his brothers and loving stepfather and loving grandmother. The system has put in place false narratives which now is defamating to me because of how easy it is to log on to CCAP and look and see that I was put on supervised visitations and it never got revised so it's still sits there. I am now and at the part where emotionally I am torn apart torn down but I am ready to fight against everybody. On Thanksgiving 2025 these events almost led to me committing suicide. I was ready, I had my plan, and I had the plan in my hand ready to execute.

The system has broken my child because they believe 50/50 is what is just for the parents but refuse to acknowledge the ramifications of what that does to the child. The system is failing children and forcing them to be in situations their parent left. I have cared for my daughter 24/7 for 2,200+ days without the help from my ex husband and now she is being forced to go with her father and its causing her regression, baby talk, thumb sucking, separation anxiety, depression, school issues, refusing to sleep, night terrors, etc.

— ANONYMOUS PARENT

I went to the system because my child was being kept from me they instead made it about money costing me all of the money I spent preparing for this new child, all of the money I spent to see this new child, broke approximately 12 codes and statutes among with unalienable rights. They tried to rub my name in the mud they tried to belittle me and treat me like a criminal and I literally presented this case just to see my child in the first place. My daughter has lost time with her brother I have lost time with my son my mother has lost time with her grandchild and my son has lost the ability to meet half of my family due to time restraints.

Everyone I've met and dealt with through this case that works with CPS has told me over and over how good of a father I am but yet I sit here without tucking my daughter into bed every night. — ANONYMOUS PARENT

This system totally screwed up the family all I was doing was what was in her best interest I always looked at what was in her best interest and it looks like the g a l the case worker the social worker that was for my daughter did what was in Ryan's best interest who is the father they cost me so much money and so much depression I almost shot myself in the head I had my daughter and raised her by myself for six and a half years without any of their help. Friendships were strained family ties broken my daughter doesn't even remember half the people on my side she lost connections to her brother and other people that we knew she was torn away from organizations that she was part of and nobody even cared so this just didn't hurt me it hurt my daughter too. Especially after they first had her during the first 6 weeks they had her they wouldn't let her talk to me they wouldn't let her see me and she fell and they didn't tell me about it it was her teacher that told me about it during her conferences and what changed is when they finally allowed me to see her and then they caused even more drama by having me supervised a paid supervisor to watch us sit and play for 4 hours that's $200 an hour at twice a month that's $1,600 a month and that went on for a year and a half that entire family is nothing but a narcissistic sociopathic psychotic piece of garbage.

— VICKI

Remove the child from their primary parents based off of allegations and no justified due process time as an emergency expert order is supposed to be temporary and it has been in place now almost 4 months pushing it towards almost being the new standard placement

— ANONYMOUS PARENT

Based on unverified allegations, I was separated from my children, leading to devastating consequences including my son's mental decline and PTSD diagnosis, another child developing severe anxiety, and the loss of our relationship, while I have been left financially unstable, lost my employment, and cannot afford medical care for my heart condition as well as dealing with on going police harassment now under DOJ review (ex husband is a local detective.)

06 HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

WHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a public, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this Wisconsin report comes from Wisconsin respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in Wisconsin — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 77 Wisconsin families reporting here are not the universe of Wisconsin families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. Response counts and percentages use the number of families who answered that specific topic or financial field. The Median Family Burden headline is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported in three or more expense categories. Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – November 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

Dollar fields exclude blank, negative, and obvious data-entry artifact values above the report's field caps. When asset-loss values contain a strong statistical outlier, the asset-loss mean and total are suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county or regional field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte–Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 3 independent families name the same actor.
