Kristin KannerJUDGE · BROWARD · 7 SUBMISSIONS

"Judge kanner recently ruled that she is going to take the recommendation of the GAL's and finalized my time sharing to be at 1/3 as opposed to 50/50 when the GAL testified that her recommendation was for Summer purposes and should be a "jolt" to me and should be revisited in August however, this judge ordered it as a final order restricting my parenting schedule. She also said that there are seasons for parenting. And that maybe my parenting style for Asher at this time i doesn't work. I have full transcripts of what she said."

"Issued and enforced a child pick-up order without an evidentiary hearing or record, ignored a pending motion to disqualify, and proceeded without due process or factual basis; within days of my pro se filings reporting judicial, attorney, and third-party misconduct, and despite being under criminal investigation related to my case, she refused to recuse, resulting in foreseeable harm including my child's hospitalization."

"In my experience before Judge Kristen Canner, evidence I believed was unreliable or improperly authenticated was admitted, while evidence I considered important was disregarded, leaving me with serious concerns about fairness and due process in my case. Then she recused herself."

"Issued a cross-state child pickup order leading to the forced removal of my granddaughter from my daughter, Kathryn Dressler, by armed police while ignoring documented domestic violence and safety risks."

"My case has been delayed due to Nicole Vette's endless litigation abuse and RYANNE SEYBA GAL allowing it. Judge Kanner is allowing it to persist, too. 3.5 years and counting!"

"Allowed false testimony, fraud upon the court and denied me due process resulting in tens of thousands of material loss."

01 NAMED COURT ACTORS, CONTINUEDMarlon WeissJUDGE · BROWARD · 7 SUBMISSIONS

"Judge Weiss was assigned to my case after successive disqualification of other judges (Kanner and Lott). I had filed ex parte emergency motions and his JA emailed me saying she was aware of them but that Judge Weiss was "out of office" and unable to respond for two weeks. I was told I either had to wait, or go into the courthouse to submit in person, despite residing in Georgia. He then entered a sua sponte recusal after I informed his JA that by law, if the assigned judicial officer wasn't available to review emergency ex parte it needed to be routed to the duty judge. The JA refused to route my motion, and Judge Weiss entered sua sponte recusal while emergency child harm matters were before the court. This led to ongoing delay and the motions were never addressed by subsequent judges."

"Declined to find contempt despite acknowledged unpaid parenting-plan expenses and evidence of the ability to pay. The Judge also declined to restore parenting time lost when the other party unilaterally changed court-ordered exchange times and locations during an active protective order that required adherence to the Parenting Plan."

"My kids were taken from me through false accusations, DCF and the GAL agree the accusations were false. I've been without my kids for 2 weeks now and he cannot "hear" my evidence until mid June."

"Ignores every motion and petition. Is aware of the child neglect and criminal activity father is doing, and refuses to let me speak"
BROWARD COUNTY

"No due process, child endangerment, biased, corrupt, unethical, destroying lives, needs to not have his job."

"Charged six thousand to throw my case. He had plenty of opportunities to bring to the attention of the court, all of the negligence and unlawful ways of FFN, DCF, and CPS. He had no interest in any of that. His exact words were he came late into the case. He can't discuss anything that happened before the came onto the case. He sabotaged it from the start. It was okd by him for FFN to move my child outside the ciuntu with out telling me. He had no rebuttal for my accusers during court. He's an appeaser. He appeases you with I'll file a motion tomorrow but never does. He's drags his feet on everything and has no intention on winning your case for you. Brace yourself for deception." ESCAMBIA

Refused to report to proper authorities regarding Judicial Fraud, shelter order granted but shelter petition filed 5 days later. SabotageMg case and who was ineffective and ignored the fraud on the court by Judges and direct evidence of abuse of my children in state custody."

01 NAMED COURT ACTORS, CONTINUEDLauralee Ganson WestineJUDGE · PASCO · 4 SUBMISSIONS

"This judge does not care about evidence and played around on her notebook while we testified. Ignored all evidence we presented. Multiple witnesses speaking on our behalf were ignored while she made jokes with the opposing council. She acknowledged during trial I had done nothing wrong and still terminated my rights. She ignored several times I presented proof that the state had lied to her during hearings and didn't want to hear it. She failed to get my son adequate mental health help despite me asking for almost a year in every single hearing. He made comments about how we were going to lose before the trial was even over. She ignored a nationally renowned children's orthopedic specialists and decided to believe a radiologist with a tenth of the experience of the doctor that we had testifying on our behalf. She visibly rolled her eyes every single time somebody said something positive about us. The only single social worker that ever interacted with us ended up testifying on our behalf and she rolled her eyes the entire time he talked. She placed my children with my brother who is a sexual predator self-confessed and I begged her not to because it was dangerous and she did not care. She refused to get genetic testing on my daughter even when I begged. She is the absolute picture of corruption and all you have to do is look at our closing arguments versus her ruling. The document is unprofessional, scathing, and ignores every shred of tangible evidence we presented."

"She refused to listen to anything I had to say she told me to shut up and refused to hear from any witnesses and sealed my case the same day. and accepted a home DNA test as proof of paternity Refused my test and refuses testimonies of witnesses. Accepted home DNA test at proof of paternity"

"Called an Evidentiary Hearing Sua Sponte, played jury, judge and executioner and single handedly removed my child because I took him to the police station to have a picture taken when the case manager said he had a red mark on his face."

01 NAMED COURT ACTORS, CONTINUEDRyanne SeybaGAL / CHILD REPRESENTATIVE · BROWARD · 4 SUBMISSIONS

"Ryanne Seyba was appointed as Guardian ad Litem in my case after being suggested by Father's attorney. At the time, I did not object because I was unfamiliar with many of the dynamics of high-conflict family court litigation. My experience with Mrs. Seyba was overwhelmingly negative. I felt that she did not act in my child's best interests and instead aligned herself with Father's position throughout the proceedings. Among other things, I perceived her as attempting to reduce my role in my child's life, questioning my mental and emotional stability, and supporting interventions that I believed were harmful to my son. She recommended reunification services and professionals, including Dr. Eric Reznik and FACES visitation center, whose involvement in our case I also viewed negatively. Over time, I came to believe that Mrs. Seyba had formed conclusions about me early in the case and interpreted subsequent events through that lens. I felt that concerns I raised were routinely dismissed, while Father's allegations were given significant weight. As a result, I lost confidence in her neutrality and her ability to serve as an independent advocate for my child. My personal belief is that, had I not persistently challenged recommendations and advocated for myself, the outcome could have been significantly more damaging to my relationship with my son. My experience with Ms. Seyba left me feeling that she contributed to escalating the conflict rather than helping resolve it in a manner that genuinely prioritized the child's welfare. I also know several other mothers, who had her on their case, and she also sided with fathers, and played against the mothers, and most definitely NOT in the children's interest."

"Loaded with bias in favor of a father with a proven track record of domestic violence. Sided with Dr. Brittany Love, dismissed litigation abuse as high conflict, allowed harassment to take place by Nicole Vette, attorney. She hasn't even interviewed my collateral witnesses yet- it's been 2 years since she interviewed their father's witnesses just to exonerate him. Ignored and minimized all of my concerns and the issues with my children. The court system has taken a survivor of domestic violence and has punished her and her children for seeking relief from the very person who harmed them. (Broward County, FL — FMCE 20-3810). My lawyer admitted to being personal friends with the GAL Ryanne Seyba. The GAL mentioned being friends with our first family therapist, Dr. Brittany Love. Litigation abuse and harassment with smear campaigns used. Ex husband with documented history of domestic violence reached out to old ex-boyfriends and even to court-ordered family therapists."

"In my experience, Guardian ad Litem Ryanne Sebya did not adequately address my repeated concerns regarding missed FaceTime calls and alleged parenting plan violations, which left me feeling that my relationship with my children was not being properly protected"

"Continued to have a hearing without me present while I attended a funeral of a close family member, forced reunification of 6 minor children exposed to domestic violence and abuse with an active injunction in place, would not allow testimony from witnesses including counselors, social workers, family members. Would not allow the children to testify even though they requested to. Denied motions before they were heard regarding incompetence of the therapist "Rosie Harkness" who I later discovered is a convicted felon with a conviction of domestic battery, charges of child abuse, and a 14 year restraining order against her by her own children. Allowed all parties, including witnesses to sit in the whole hearing instead of making them wait for their testimony outside the courtroom. Made witnesses wait outside the court until they were called to testify and then did not allow them to testify. Placed orders that violate the injunction. Listened to testimony from Rosie Harkness falsely accusing the mother of filing 9 false reports of abuse to DCF, when the mother did not file any of the reports and they were all filed by different mandatory reporters (parents of the children's friends, gu Would not allow children to testify. When one child did testify it was off the record for 45 minutes. When a motion was filed by the Gaurdian Ad Litem to remove custody from the father due to abuse, the judge spent the time in court listening to the testimony of the court therapist disputing who filed reports to DCF instead of the information filed in the report regarding the safety of the children. The judge continued to listen to the court therapist after multiple complaints of bias and would not allow testimony from many witnesses. The judge denied motions without hearing evidence. The judge had private meetings with attorneys before hearings were held off camera. The judge allowed the court therapist to sit in and listen to testimony of other witnesses when she was listed as a witness."

"Concerns have been raised regarding the handling of allegations of child abuse Specifically, despite a report made by a mental health provider concerning suspected abuse, no emergency hearing was scheduled following the report. Additional concerns relate to this judge's apparent reliance on hearsay testimony during proceedings. It is alleged that significant decisions affecting custody and related matters were made based on statements that were not subject to direct testimony or cross-examination. The handling of these matters including the combination of delayed judicial response to abuse allegations and reliance on hearsay evidence undermine confidence in the fairness and thoroughness of this judge's process, particularly given the seriousness of the concerns raised regarding child safety."

"This judge ruled based on hearsay testimony of a guardian ad litem who was ill informed of the facts of the situation. Florida law does not allow guardian ad litem to give hearsay testimony."

01 NAMED COURT ACTORS, CONTINUEDDanny Phillips

ATTORNEY · LEON · 3 SUBMISSIONS

"Before retaining counsel, I consulted with Danny Phillips regarding my family law case. We discussed the matter for approximately 13 minutes before he disclosed that he shared office space and a paralegal with Toby Norris, who represented the opposing party. Upon learning of that relationship, I did not retain Mr. Phillips. Later in the litigation, Mr. Phillips filed a Notice of Appearance on behalf of the opposing party. Because I had previously consulted with him about my case, this raised significant concerns for me regarding conflict screening and the appearance of impartiality. Mr. Phillips denied this communication on several occurrences. Phone records later confirmed our consultation after its occurrence had initially been disputed. Regardless of whether any ethical violation occurred, my experience highlighted the importance of clear conflict-screening procedures and transparency to ensure litigants have confidence in the fairness and integrity of the family court process."

"Conspired with psychologist (Rachel Scharlepp) to attempt to incarcerate mother for alienation. Danny is close friends with Rachel Scharlepp. Danny conspired with opposing counsel (John Kenny) to threaten mother with losing her children if she didn't sign a contract. He filed motions without notifying parties. He contacted the judges assistant ex parte. He conspired with Rosie Harkness to facilitate further abuse to 6 children. He conspired to withhold evidence from the court when emails were subpoenaed. He took the case after the mother consulted with his colleague Toby Norris, which was a conflict of interest having previous knowledge of opposing party consultation. Works with other court actors to be profitable and he uses people in a position of power to threaten victims"

"Concerns have been raised regarding this attorney's candor and professional conduct in court proceedings, including allegations that statements made in litigation have at times been inconsistent with the likely facts of the situation. Additional concerns relate to the attorney's personal relationship with a former client whom he previously represented before later marrying. Critics argue that this history raises questions regarding professional boundaries, judgment, and potential ethical considerations surrounding attorney-client relationships. Taken together, these issues have contributed to broader concerns regarding credibility, professionalism, and adherence to the ethical standards expected of attorneys practicing within sensitive family law matters."

Deborah O. Day

CUSTODY EVALUATOR · VOLUSIA · 3 SUBMISSIONS

"Dr. Day dismissed, ignored and suppressed credible evidence of child sexual abuse, gave a false diagnosis of pediatric bipolar to my 8 year old daughter and said that negates child sexual abuse. She didn't have bipolar and then she dismissed her pediatrician proving no bipolar then helped the family court give sole custody to their identified perpetrator, their father and erased me from their lives. Dr. Deborah Day of Psychological Affiliates in Winter Park, Florida was assigned to my case. She ignored credible evidence of child abuse and told the court "in this examiner's opinion R (at 8 years old) has pediatric bipolar and that negates child sexual abuse." R's pediatrician since birth said she did not have pediatric bipolar and that was ignored by Day. Day has a history of giving custody to abusive parents. She dismissed my daughter's explicit disclosures of sexual abuse to school teachers, her sexual acting out in kindergarten, and her drawings of her father with an erect penis. My family was destroyed by family court and Dr. Deborah O. Day."

"Conducted Social Investigation which ignored and/or minimized facts and evidence which led to a biased opinion (in favor of the party paying her bill)." PALM BEACH

"She inherited my 7 years divorce case (so far), refuses to reopen the case that was dismissed incorrectly during my government verified involuntary absence, causing a legal nightmare of status quo of invalid and void orders (all orders legally die when case is dismissed, yet still being illegally enforced by Child Support) protecting DCF & DOR from being sued, refusing to enjoin them into the case per my motions, leaving my entire life and my children hanging with no due process and to be heard in a court of law."

"Violates Cannon 3, constitutional right to due process. 790 signatures in change.org petition to have her removed. JQC complaints and Federal Lawsuits and appeals against this one sitting judge in Broward county have erupted."

01 NAMED COURT ACTORS, CONTINUEDGeneral Magistrate Annette J. SzorosyJUDGE · BROWARD · 4 SUBMISSIONS

"General Magistrate Annette Szorosy exceeded her authority by forcing traumatizing supervised visitation despite repeated warnings, documented abuse concerns, and clear evidence that the process was causing severe psychological and medical harm to my daughter, who was later hospitalized twice; she and Judge Kanner then weaponized a May 16 hearing regarding attorney withdrawal to strike, suppress, and effectively erase my emergency filings and medical evidence while allowing the abuse, retaliation, and separation from my child to continue unchecked. Issued custody-related recommendations without evidentiary support, ignored documented abuse and material facts, and contributed to outcomes that removed my child without due process or consideration of safety."

"GM Szorosy was involved in my case for a relatively brief period. My experience before her was negative, as I felt that Father's position was consistently receiving more favorable treatment than my own. As a self-represented litigant, I was left with the impression that the proceedings were not being conducted in an even-handed manner. Fortunately, her involvement in the case was short-lived. Following Department of Revenue involvement and reassignment of the matter, the issues before her were transferred to another judicial officer. From my perspective, this was a positive development, as I had little confidence in her impartiality."

"Has been in my case and many times tried to sneak an order to move the case to general magistrate to cover up all the fraud in my case for 7 years, issuing an illegal order to move the case despite my legally and timely filed objections, then having to later retract and vacate the order to keep the case with the judges."

Joan Anthony

JUDGE · SEVENTH CIRCUIT COURT · 3 SUBMISSIONS

"She was a defendant in my federal case while she presided over my tpr hearing and refused to recuse. She had me thrown in jail when i filed a motion to have her recuse for suppressing domestic violence evidence I disclosed and a motion for ADA accommodations for online court record viewing. The court window would not give me copies of filings or orders. She appointed counsel in abstentia on February 5, 2024 and had the attorney representing my husband substitute for the absent attorney. I was a domestic violence victim in my husband's current criminal case. The substitute attorney over talked me when i tried to disclose i was a victim of dv. He said he had to protect his clients interests, so he silenced me. Judge Anthony silenced me also when i tried to explain about the dv my husband did to me in front of my children. This happened during the continued shelter hearing. The first shelter hearing was held while I was at the Orlando Advent Children's hospital signing off on emergency brain surgery, Feb 2, 2024 for my special needs child. Judge Anthony issued a retroactive nunc pro tunc order on May 30, 2024 to conceal the conflicted counsel. Judge Kathleen McNeilly removed my disability attorney who was advocating for me during the Feb 2, 2024 shelter hearing. I had no attorney and there were three structural errors during the shelter hearings. Judge Anthony had the clerk not docket my filings. The appeal record was irregular and incomplete yet the 5th DCA knew this and issued a PCA to cover everything the lower tribunal did up. Finally, i informed her i was coerced into signing consent with no counsel present. The consebt form was misdsing the attorney signature block. And the attached notary was fraudulent voiding the document under Florida law. I informed Anthony, CPC, cm, pulled my mother's Florida homestudy out of the FSN system foreclosing her guardian candidacy and changing the trajectory of the tpr. She deleted my filing. She committed judicial misconduct throughout my case and harmed my family."

"Florida DCF and its state contractors (Community Partnership for Children, Seventh Circuit Court, Volusia County) ignored altered and fraudulent coerced consent documents used to remove parental rights from a disabled woman under duress. The fraudulent consent forms, fraudulent notary certificate, an unnegotiated and unsigned case plan — and the judicial forms Judge Anthony altered — are all filed in our federal Appeal case (Fla. 11th Cir. Appeal No. 25-13536 G) as irrefutable evidence of improper documents used to procure federal Title IV-E funding in Volusia County. Judge Anthony failed to recuse and my disability attorney was told to withdraw 3 days before my shelter hearing. Judge Anthony did not have the court clerk docket my pro se filings. They were substantive filings, including a motion to vacate and written opposition to TPR. She silenced me when I disclosed I was a victim of domestic violence. She mocked me during the proceedings and had me arrested after I filed motions for her recusal and ADA accommodations. She deleted emergency filings for medical care for my special needs infant to have a comprehensive evaluation. Florida DCF uses Behavioral Assessment reports to guide medical care in their cases in place of qualified medical professionals. This medical neglect and judicial misconduct is threatening my infant daughter's life. She ignored and suppressed dv in my case. As a result my children were nearly transferred back into a cycle of domestic violence when my husband filed for jurisdiction in AK. The court was provided multiple FOIA'd law enforcement reports documenting my husband's dv, kidnapping, rape and strangling me in front of my two younger children. She and the DCF attorneys and GALs kept laughing and doing inside jokes during the hearing." VOLUSIA

"Presided over my daughter's TPR trial while named as a defendant in her civil rights case. Appointed counsel in abstention, and has the father's lawyer represent both parents conflict. Father has a criminal case where my daughter was victim. The substitute lawyer stopped my daughter from disclosing she was a victim of dv during the shelter hearing. Judge Anthony allowed FL DCF to use Devereux Behavioral Assessment reports and foster heresay to keep my granddaughter on a g-tube. FL DCF and the CBC, Community Partnership for Children removed an Easter Seals oral-motor evaluation documenting oral motor capacity from the case file to deny my daughter's request for a g-tube weaning evaluation. As a result of the medical neglect, my granddaughter had her right brain surgery on January 30, 2026. she is special needs and not seeing qualified medical specialists. Judge Anthony denied ADA accommodations to my daughter and I. She deleted all the substantive filings in the dependency case. She ignored my daughter disclosing she was coerced into signing consent, without counsel, by the fl DCF mediator who was the attorney appointed in absentia. The case manger altered the consent form to remove the attorney signature block. The case plan was never negotiated or signed. FI DCF never had jurisdiction, bit the judge ignored every violation. Despite all these procedural due process violations, The 5th DCA issued a PCA on 4-29-26." VOLUSIA

"The Guardian ad Litem appeared to place significant emphasis on relatively minor school attendance concerns, including a small number of tardies, while giving comparatively limited attention to more serious allegations involving the father's history and conduct. According to the information available, the father had previously experienced a removal/loss of custody involving other children. There were also allegations involving the father's association with an individual described as a pedophile who was reportedly attempting to gain access to the child, as well as allegations concerning large handprint bruises observed on the child and attributed to the father. These issues were not meaningfully addressed or emphasized in the Guardian ad Litem's report. At the same time, the report reportedly recommended a reverse custody provision if the child accumulated more than two tardies for any reason. There are also concerns regarding imbalance in the investigative process. The Guardian ad Litem reportedly conducted extensive communication with individuals aligned with the father while failing to contact or meaningfully engage with collateral sources identified by the mother. Taken together, these circumstances raise concerns regarding proportionality, neutrality, and the consistency with which allegations and risk factors were evaluated."

"There are concerns regarding this Guardian ad Litem's pattern of involvement in cases connected to the same attorney representing fathers in family law matters. In multiple cases, serious allegations involving the fathers appear to receive limited scrutiny, while allegations against mothers are amplified and emphasized. A recurring issue raised by several mothers involves accusations related to eating disorders and nutritional concerns, despite questions regarding the Guardian ad Litem's qualifications to make clinical or nutritional assessments. There are also concerns that allegations involving sexual abuse by fathers are minimized or dismissed without meaningful investigation. Additionally, the Guardian ad Litem appears to place significant weight on collateral sources aligned with the father, while responding negatively or dismissively when collateral witnesses supporting the mother provide conflicting information or perspectives. Taken together, these patterns raise concerns regarding neutrality, investigative balance, and the consistent treatment of allegations across cases."

"She allowed a complete violation of time-sharing and decision making and didn't budge when a therapist called DCF on the Father after speaking to the child once."

"My Florida family court case lasted 3 years and left me with serious concerns about the investigative process, transparency, and accountability within the system. My greatest concern was the Guardian ad Litem assigned to my case. Throughout the proceedings, I provided documentation that I believed could objectively verify disputed issues, including transportation records, school information, medical records, and written communications. In my experience, those records were not consistently used to verify competing claims, while unsupported narratives were given significant weight. For more than two years, I assumed the overwhelming majority of the transportation required by the parenting schedule, resulting in substantial mileage, lost work opportunities, and financial hardship. I was advised that financial considerations were not part of the Guardian ad Litem's evaluation. However, the practical burdens of a parenting plan directly affect a parent's ability to maintain employment, provide stability, and meet a child's needs. I believe those realities should be considered when evaluating a child's best interests. I also presented documentation regarding concerns for my child's safety and medical care. I did not believe those concerns received the level of independent investigation they warranted before recommendations were made. Another concern involved transparency. After I retained a court reporter, I observed that recommendations were no longer announced during meetings on the record. Instead, recommendations were communicated a few days later through email correspond"

The report detailed: • The presiding judge (Anthony) was a judicial defendant in a related federal action yet continued to preside over the TPR trial without recusal. • Altered consent documents and a fraudulent notary certificate attached to the case file. • Docket scrubbing that concealed the appointment of conflicted counsel. • A request for review under Canon 3E authority was submitted, but no action was taken, and the TPR trial proceeded despite unresolved conflicts and record-integrity concerns." SEVENTH CIRCUIT, VOLUSIA COUNTY

"This judge broke FL law, specifically code 12.407 that minor children shall not be permitted in family court proceedings without extreme circumstances that the judge can articulate. My X sent my son to Panama when I said no and I was only given 5 days warning (30 required). I filed a motion for contempt of the parenting plan. Opposing counsel filed for my son to testify. Judge Curley granted it with zero reasoning provided on the order. The trip to Panama is well documented through our family wizard, customs, and on my son's passport. This is why the judge didn't provide a reason for her ruling. There isn't one that isn't crooked. Now my son is being pitted against me because this judge is illegally trying to protect one parent who obviously is in contempt."

"- Court Findings were factually incorrect, biased and prejudiced. -Made a permanent ruling without seeing 180+ pages of evidence. -Lack of due process - not a fair trial -Denied equal timesharing to Mother despite no allegations, findings or evidence of abuse, harm or neglect -Gives equal time sharing to fathers with evidence of abuse by CPS -Basis judgement and rulings of off hearsay with no evidence to support other parties hearsay -Local Attorneys say she is terrible at her job -Ignores evidence and witnesses Ignored / suppressed evidence Judge on this case"

"Florida DCF and its contracted Case Managers relied on Licensed Mental Health Counselors (LMHCs) to interpret my infant grandchild's medical records, summarize medical findings, and make recommendations about medical conditions outside their scope of practice. These LMHC reports were used in place of qualified medical evaluations and specialists, and their interpretations were treated as authoritative despite the LMHCs lacking medical licensure. This practice denied my daughter meaningful participation in her baby's medical care, obstructed access to accurate medical information and endangering the child's life. The LMHC summaries were repeatedly used to justify decisions affecting the medically fragile infant and her 3 siblings without proper medical oversight. Also, the foster caregiver authorized genetic testing on medically fragile infant, my grandchild, without consent while my daughter's parental rights were intact. After my daughter requested a weaning evaluation, DCF and the case managers removed an oral motor weaning assessment showing swallow capacity from the case file, leaving my grandchild on a g-tube unnecessarily for 3 years."

"Rodney pulled my mother's FL home-study out of the FSFN system. She had the hospital eject my mother and I from the NICU. She committed mental injury on my two older children while committing relative alienation to destroy familial bonds. She denied g-tube weaning for my medically fragile infant, misrepresenting medical reports and using foster caregiver here-say and Devereux behavioral assessment reports instead of an Easter Seals oral-motor evaluation. She removed the Easter Seals report from the file. As a result my daughter who had been weaning before she was removed was unnecessarily paced back on a g-tube and medically neglected. Cpc and DCF falsified medical paperwork stating my parental rights had been terminated to do genetic testing on my infant daughter. There was no court order only the foster caregiver gave consent and i was not notified although my parental rights were intact."

"Removed relative Kim Florida Homestudy from the FSFN database to foreclose guardian candidacy and did not start a court ordered VT ICPC homestudy for 5 months until candidate filed a petition. Altered consent paperwork and attached a falsified notary. Denied g-tube weaning evaluation using Devereux Behavioral Assessment reports done by Licensed Mental Health Counselors and foster care giver observations. Misrepresented a gastroenterologist visit for formula feed and constipation As a g-tube weaning assessment. Denying proper medical care endangering infants life. Infant, Deska Dreka, still has no adequate medical care for her complex medical needs and may die from medical neglect."

FLORIDA AT A GLANCE.

Across 306 Florida families reporting through the Family Rights Registry, the patterns are consistent: long durations in court, serious financial loss, and a disproportionate number of parents going unrepresented because they ran out of money fighting.

WHY THIS REPORT EXISTS.

On January 29, 2024, I lost custody of all five of my children.

- NO TRIAL.
- NO QUESTIONING.
- NO SUBSTANTIATED ABUSE.

It took only a signature on an ex parte emergency order to erase a mother. I refused to disappear. I fought back, and built the Family Rights Registry so Florida families — and families across every represented location — would stop being invisible to the data. This report is their record.

03 THE COST OF FLORIDA FAMILY COURT

Legal fees are the largest reported expense, but they are not the only one. Lost wages, evaluation costs, and reunification services compound the financial loss — pushing most families toward pro se representation once their savings run out.

EXPENSE CATEGORY	RESPONSES	MEDIAN	MEAN	TOTAL REPORTED
Attorney Fees	192	$30,000	$83,555	$16,042,540
Lost Wages	143	$40,000	$214,544	$30,679,755

Reunification Services	69	$1,000	$4,557	$314,446

Asset Loss ¹	127	$60,000	—	—
Median Family Burden (134 families reporting 3+ categories)	—	$180,750	—	—

Median vs. mean: Median is the middle reported amount, so it better reflects the typical reporting family when a few very large expenses appear. Mean is the average across reporting families and can be pulled higher by outliers. Median Family Burden is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported costs in 3 or more expense categories with a combined total of at least $1,000 — a true median of real family totals, restricted to families who filled out enough of the financial section to characterize their case and excluding obvious data-entry artifacts.

1. On asset loss: One respondent reported an extreme outlier that skews the mean beyond usefulness. We report the median ($60,000) and suppress the mean and total, pending data-quality review. Lost Wages also contains wide variance; median is the honest headline.

Attorney Derek Allison Folds has become a deeply controversial figure in Florida's family court system. Critics argue that her legal career is less a result of merit and more the product of deep-rooted nepotism — allegedly benefiting from her father's longstanding connections with local politicians, judges, court-appointed mental health professionals, and appellate courts. According to numerous families — particularly survivors of domestic violence — Folds has been accused of working against her own clients' interests and frequently representing alleged abusers. Rather than advocating for justice or protection, she is reportedly aligned with court-appointed professionals and attorneys who have been accused of unethical behavior, including manipulation and bias. These connections are seen by many as tools used to undermine protective parents and influence case outcomes behind closed doors. Her legal work is often described by critics as careless, sloppy, and allegedly plagiarized — with claims that she recycles arguments from other attorneys and files documents that fail to meet basic professional standards. Despite this, she reportedly maintains a high success rate in appellate courts, raising serious concerns among families and advocates about the fairness and impartiality of those rulings. Folds currently serves as Vice President of the Eighth Judicial Circuit Bar Association — a voluntary bar group in North Florida. While this role does not grant her disciplinary authority through The Florida Bar, it does place her in a position of influence over local legal culture, networking, and public recognition — which some see as a serious conflict of interest. When serving as opposing counsel, Folds has been described by families and litigants as aggressive, unethical, and unprofessional. Multiple reports claim she engages in reckless tactics that retraumatize survivors and escalate conflict in already fragile legal proceedings. Her conduct, according to those who have encountered her, appears to disregard the best interests of Florida's children and families. This growing body of allegations has fueled concerns of favoritism, judicial networking, and backroom deals — where legal outcomes are allegedly influenced by who you know rather than what is true, just, or safe. Advocates believe Folds represents a deeper problem in Florida's family court system — one that resembles a cash-for-kids pipeline, where collusion, corruption, and cronyism override child welfare. Protective parents are being silenced. Children are reportedly being placed in harm's way. And the people tasked with ensuring fairness and justice are allegedly using their power to protect themselves instead. The public deserves transparency, accountability, and an urgent investigation into how roles of influence — like the one held by Folds — are being used within Florida's family courts.

Here's a more refined and emotionally grounded impact statement that centers both the human cost and the systemic failures you endured: For years, I lived under the weight of false allegations that changed every aspect of my life. Before any facts were fully verified, I was judged publicly, separated from my children, stripped of my reputation, and forced to defend myself against accusations that no evidence ultimately supported. What has been most devastating is realizing how an undertrained and deeply flawed system overlooked critical facts, warning signs, and context from the very beginning. Instead of conducting a balanced and objective investigation, assumptions were allowed to harden into conclusions. The system failed to recognize the possibility of bias, failed to properly evaluate inconsistencies, and failed to protect the rights and dignity of an innocent person. The emotional impact cannot be overstated. I experienced fear, humiliation, isolation, anxiety, and trauma on a daily basis. I lost precious time with my children that can never be recovered. I endured public shame while trying to survive emotionally, financially, and mentally under extraordinary pressure. Even after the allegations collapsed, the scars remained. False accusations do not disappear simply because charges are dropped — they follow a person into every relationship, every opportunity, and every attempt to rebuild. This experience also exposed how dangerous it can be when investigators, agencies, and systems are not adequately trained to handle sensitive cases with neutrality, critical thinking, and accountability. When professionals approach allegations with tunnel vision instead of evidence-based investigation, innocent families can be destroyed. A system designed to protect children and pursue justice must also be capable of identifying manipulation, conflict-driven accusations, and investigative bias. I believe there were opportunities throughout this process where greater training, oversight, and objectivity could have prevented irreversible harm. Instead, the system escalated fear rather than seeking truth. By the time reality surfaced, my family and I had already suffered immense damage. The impact on my life has been permanent. My reputation, emotional well-being, financial stability, and sense of safety were all deeply affected. Rebuilding after public accusations is not something that happens overnight. It requires strength, resilience, and a constant fight against the stigma that remains long after exoneration. I share my story not only because of what happened to me, but because no innocent person should have to endure this kind of devastation due to systemic failures, inadequate training, and investigative bias. Accountability matters. Proper training matters. Due process matters. Truth matters. And innocent families deserve better.

— WALQUIRIA KIA (2/2)

My children have lost faith in the very systems that were supposed to protect them. They made disclosures to adults they believed were safe: DCF, law enforcement, family court professionals, and a Guardian ad Litem. I believed these systems existed to protect vulnerable children. Instead, my children were failed by delay, minimization, mischaracterization, and silence. For years, I tried to bring evidence before the court in a meaningful way. Hearings to suspend the father's timesharing were continued repeatedly. Critical motions for contempt, enforcement, safety, discovery, and court guidance remained unresolved. The father was not required to take the stand during those hearings, yet the narrative against me continued to grow. Then, without warning, the judge on my case retired. A senior judge was assigned. What I believed would be a case management conference became a rushed path toward final hearing, despite multiple pending motions and unresolved child-safety issues. A Guardian ad Litem, Stacey Cohen, Esq., was appointed over through fraudulent means by my former attorney who put in a motion for one and I only discovered this on the docket after I went pro se. The GAL prejudiced my custody case almost immediately. Within days of accepting her appointment, before completing any meaningful investigation, before interviewing me, before visiting my home, and before fully reviewing the evidence, she inserted herself into matters involving my children and my sexual battery case that was before state prosecutor's in a separate jurisdiction with myself as the victim against my children's father. I believe her conduct harmed my credibility, harmed my children's ability to be heard, continued to silence them, interfered with my children's therapy when the father unilaterally withdrew one child and successfully silenced the other to where my daughter stopped therapy before the narration portion was to begin. The GAL provided cover for the very person my children had made disclosures about. She described me as "unhinged" and mentally ill to the state prosecutor's while I still had an active case, while treating the father as credible, despite not having completed a full investigation. Soon after, Broward declined to pursue criminal charges. That does not mean no crime occurred. It means the system failed to move forward. To this day, after months on the case, she has never meaningfully interviewed me, never came to my home to observe the children in my care, she never contacted ANY of my collaterals, and in my opinion, failed to investigate the most serious allegations with the urgency and neutrality required of someone appointed to protect children. Instead of centering the children's disclosures, she recommended that I undergo a psychological evaluation, suggested I had Munchausen-related issues, and made no comparable recommendation for the father, despite the children's disclosures involving nudity, inappropriate comments, boundary violations, fear, secrecy conditioning regarding adult-child sexual themes, and discomfort and fear in his home. The evidence exists. Police reports exist. DCF involvement exists. Recordings exist. Collateral witnesses exist. My children's voices exist. But the evidence was not brought before the court in a meaningful way by the person appointed to help the court understand the children's best interests. In my opinion, Stacey Cohen did not act as a voice for my children. She became a buffer for the father and an obstacle between the court and the truth. My hope is to pursue accountability through every lawful channel available, including the Florida Bar. I believe no professional who ignores child-safety disclosures, prejudices a protective parent, and fails to conduct a complete and neutral investigation should be entrusted with children's lives. This is my story. It is also my children's story. I am not ashamed of fighting for them.

Years of litigation within the family court system had a profound impact on my family. The prolonged conflict resulted in significant financial hardship, including legal expenses, lost income, and ongoing costs associated with the case. The chronic stress contributed to health complications, emotional exhaustion, and uncertainty that affected nearly every aspect of our daily lives. Beyond the financial burden, the litigation altered family relationships and consumed years that should have been spent providing stability and creating positive memories for my children. Instead of focusing on healing and moving forward, much of our time, energy, and resources were devoted to responding to conflict, correcting misinformation, and navigating an adversarial legal process. The greatest loss cannot be measured financially. It is the emotional toll on a family that simply wanted fairness, stability, and the opportunity to move forward. My hope in sharing my experience is that meaningful reforms will help reduce unnecessary conflict, improve accountability, and ensure that future families are better protected from the long-term consequences of prolonged family court litigation. In my experience, family law became one of the most insidious and financially destructive systems I have ever encountered. Rather than serving as a pathway toward resolution and stability, I experienced a process that, at times, felt psychologically abusive, one that rewarded prolonged conflict, depleted financial resources, and left families emotionally exhausted. The cumulative effect of years of litigation, repeated false allegations, escalating legal costs, and inconsistent accountability created a system that I experienced as both psychologically and financially devastating. My hope is that future reforms recognize not only the legal outcomes of family court proceedings but also the profound human cost they can impose on parents and children. No family should leave the courtroom carrying lasting financial devastation, emotional trauma, and the feeling that the process itself became another source of harm.

Family court is a broken system, attorneys all say they same they want to help they care, bullshit they just want money. You can have proof but once your in the system there is no way of getting out. You are stuck spending money and have to sit and watch your children suffer. Not the attorneys not the judge but your own children. We are mother's here to protect and live out kids and that right is taken away from us!!

We had a new pick up truck . We needed help with housing upgrades and communication and some other things but, my husband is now in prison and has been 2 years, my children have never gotten to open presents together on Christmas morning let alone other millions of missed connections, love and quality time. my daughter was in an incident and when I finally got a call from the abuse hotline about the incident the stories were different. They even lied about the date the incident happened and told me it was normal curiosity!!!!!! My baby was only 5 years old he is 13 years old!!!! And I told my judge and everyone I spoke to for 2 years that something was wrong with my daughter and I was told to shut up and stop putting ideas in her head!!!! I knew something was wrong with my baby! I want them back.

Tore us apart and broke many bonds #KaynTay Pamela Bokhoven #KaynTay Shop and Outreach Campaign Manager, aoa-anc.org Justice and Accountability Act Committee written by Francesca Amato Francesca Amato 325-225-8050 Subject: Urgent Call for Family Justice and Accountability Reform Dear [Senator/Congress Members I am writing to you as both a concerned mother and an advocate dedicated to protecting families from the devastating effects of forced adoptions and systemic failures in child welfare. My organization, #KaynTay Shop and Outreach, works tirelessly to support parents navigating these unjust systems. As someone who has personally experienced the removal and permanent adoption of my child without due process, I have witnessed firsthand the emotional, legal, and social consequences of these policies. Families are torn apart, parents are silenced, and children are placed in situations that may not serve their best interests. This crisis demands urgent attention and decisive action from our elected leaders. I strongly urge you to support the Family Justice and Accountability Act, ensuring rigorous oversight, transparency, and accountability in child welfare cases. Families deserve a system that protects their rights and prioritizes unity, not profit or bureaucracy. Your leadership can bring much-needed justice to countless families across our nation. Thank you for your attention to this critical matter. I welcome the opportunity to discuss these issues further and provide any testimony or documentation that may assist in shaping policy that truly serves families. Sincerely, Pamela Bokhoven #KaynTay Shop and Outreach

Psychologically damaged my children, myself, and my husband. Delayed my infant's development and denied his right to breastfeed. Destroyed my marriage. Brought on severe substance abuse issues to one of my child's fathers that they have still not recovered from causing years of unemployment. Caused me to feel unsafe in this country permanently. Ruined my reputation and destroyed my relationships within my church. Took my opportunity away to ever be a foster parent which was a life goal to help other children.

It wasn't until I threatened to go to the Florida Bar Association that she started to show up. Not a single motion was filed by her to push the process aside from the original filings. — STEPHANIE

This system didn't protect our family—it destroyed it. My brother's three children were taken in the middle of the night and split apart into different homes, stripping them not only from their father but from each other. Siblings who were raised together have been denied even the basic right to speak or see one another, including a brother they've been completely cut off from. From the very beginning, our entire family was shut out. Calls went unanswered, messages ignored, and every attempt to be involved was met with excuses or silence. It wasn't just neglect—it felt intentional, like barriers were put in place to prevent reunification instead of support it. Decisions were made based on twisted narratives and incomplete truths, while a stable home and years of care were disregarded. Instead of helping children stay connected to the people who raised and loved them, the system chose separation, disconnection, and permanent damage. What was taken from us wasn't just custody—it was a family bond that can't be replaced. And years later, we are still living with the consequences of a system that failed the very people it was supposed to protect.

This Broward County Family Court system caused devastating harm to our family long before the seizure of my granddaughter, including the loss of multiple family members as a result of prolonged proceedings. The court then ordered her taken across state lines from my daughter in Darien, Georgia—while the father resides in Miami—returning her to a dangerous environment despite evidence of abuse. I was physically present and personally witnessed the seizure as armed police took my granddaughter while she was crying, screaming, and begging not to be taken. This caused further irreversible harm, including medical collapse, trauma to multiple disabled family members, and the destruction of our entire family structure. All of this has been repeatedly documented and reported to multiple courts, agencies, and oversight bodies, with no meaningful action taken. Completely ignored their own evidence and essentially destroyed my family (wife, son and grandmother). We have very serious diagnosis' and destructive patterns of behavior (mother probing child's anus to attempt to demonstrate that father has anally raped the child... etc. etc. etc. many more examples). Mother has falsely accused at least 3 other men that I know of - court completely ignores the patterns. Mother was arrested for DV against her lawyer/boyfriend who the court also appointed as her supervisor. I've had primary custody most of our son's life. I have offered the Mother 50/50 in at least 5 mediations. Every time she has declined. Multiple previous friends of the mother have told me she stated "she will never settle with me until she gets 100% custody. her goal is to destroy me, destroy my marriage, and get me deported.

When a father is focused on sabotage, financial abuse, psychological destruction and retaliation, the court should not have the option of ignoring evidence and forcing the custodial parent to handle all of this without protection, protective order because it allows continual access to escalate the abuse, which empowers the Abuser while destroying the mother & children.

This litigation has had a profound impact on every aspect of my life. Financially, I have incurred substantial attorney's fees, the ongoing costs of Soberlink monitoring, evaluations, testing, and litigation, all while working as a teacher on a limited income. I have relied on child support to help meet my monthly expenses, and the prospect of now paying child support while also having my parenting time reduced creates a significant financial hardship. More importantly, the greatest loss has not been financial—it has been the loss of time with my son. During what are likely the last two years before he reaches adulthood, my parenting time has been reduced from equal timesharing to one-third of his time. Time with a child cannot be replaced or recovered. Every missed holiday, family dinner, conversation, and ordinary day together is something I will never get back. Throughout this case, I have completed every evaluation requested of me, participated in therapy, submitted to extensive Soberlink monitoring, and ultimately passed the Court-ordered ETG hair test. Although the Court was satisfied enough with those results to terminate Soberlink, I nevertheless lost significant parenting time. That has been emotionally devastating.

— ANONYMOUS PARENT

Due to the system's negligence I have been forcefully alienated from my daughter's life. The system has chosen to believe lies when evidence was proven without a doubt. 07 HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

WHAT THIS IS

The Family Rights Registry is a public, parent-reported data collection run by Stand With Meg. Every figure in this Florida report comes from Florida respondents who voluntarily submitted survey entries about their experience inside family court and/or CPS.

This report is built to help families, advocates, reporters, and legislators see the patterns emerging in Florida — not to replace formal research, and not to name individual judges or counties as responsible parties.

WHAT IT ISN'T

This is not a representative sample. Respondents self-select. The 306 Florida families reporting here are not the universe of Florida families in court — they are the families who found the survey, trusted it enough to submit, and told us what happened to them.

Financial figures are self-reported. Response counts and percentages use the number of families who answered that specific topic or financial field. The Median Family Burden headline is the median of total reported expenses across families who reported in three or more expense categories. Quotes are minimally edited.

METHODOLOGY · FAMILY RIGHTS REGISTRY

Data in this report was collected April 2024 – July 2026 through standwithmeg.com/family-rights-survey. Submissions are timestamped. Duplicate-submission heuristics use normalized email + location, with direct survey rows preferred over legacy rows and the newest row retained within each source. Categorical responses from multi-select and short-answer fields are normalized monthly.

Dollar fields exclude blank, negative, and obvious data-entry artifact values above the report's field caps. When asset-loss values contain a strong statistical outlier, the asset-loss mean and total are suppressed and only the median is reported. Lost-wage, attorney-fee, and asset-loss entries are self-reported and not corroborated against tax records or court filings.

Geographic reporting uses the county or regional field as submitted, with light normalization (e.g. "Butte silverbow" → "Butte-Silver Bow"). Quotes carry one of three public permission states: Anonymous, First-name only, or Full attribution with consent to public use. Court actor names appear only after 3 independent families name the same actor.
